ALL MONTH.

—Senator Ingalls is willing.
—Get ready for Arbor Day.
—Buy the Tiger Hat and none other. *f 26 1m
—Lung Protectors at Thaxter's Drug Store.
—The weather signals predict fair weather.
—For cold feet, get a Hot Water Bag at Thaxter's.
—The Arlington House is putting in the electric light.
—The Spring milliners are getting ready for a raid.
—The Examiner is still roasting the opium ring of this Coast.
—The snow-storm of Sunday is another big lift for the ranchers.
—Sarah Althea went for the first $8,000 dab of alimony yesterday.
—Blumenthal & Cohn are sole agents for the Tiger Hat. *f 26 1m
—Shaw's Hot Springs are now in fine running order, and better than ever.

—No more chippies in the Capitol square after the dynamos begin to whirl.
—Kieth Bros. of Chicago manufacture the Tiger Hat. Every hat warranted. *f 26 1m —"Our Own" orchestra will give a masquerade ball at Armory Hall, March 16th.
—The Supreme Court and the U. S. District Courts, were in session yesterday.
—Clem Berry is selling tomatoes that are superior to anything in that line on the Coast.

—The electric light will probably be turned on by Thursday night if no accidents happens.
—Gov. Alger of Michigan, the APPEAL's favorite Presidential candidate is in San Francisco.

—There will be a meeting of the Carson Wheelmen at Armory Hall this evening. A full attendance is requested.

—N. T. Elliot, of the Toledo Blade, paid the APPEAL office a visit yesterday. He will leave for Reno this morning.

—The electric lights will be turned loose this week. These lamps are 3,000 candle power, eclipsing those of Reno, which are only 1,200 candle power.

—Penny-ante poker is the kind of a game Pizen Switchers amuse themselves with now. It will be dollar-ante after they sell their next crop. —Lyon County Times.

—An interesting communication on tree planting has been received at this office written by Mr. Woods the arboriculturist. It contains several large clips of wisdom relating to tree planting and will appear to-morrow.

—C. H. Goodwin, Manager of the Campobello Opera Company, paid the APPEAL office a pleasant visit last evening, and informs us that that Company will appear at the Carson Theater on Tuesday evening, March 13th.

—A purgative medicine should possess tonic and curative, as well as cathartic properties. This combination of ingredients may be found in Ayer's Pills. They strengthen and stimulate the bowels, causing natural action.

—Almost miraculous are some of the cures accomplished by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In the case of R. L. King, Richmond, Va., who suffered for 47 years with an aggravated form of scrofula, Ayer's Sarsaparilla effected astonishing results.

—In the last Century magazine is an article descriptive of the digging of a tunnel from Libby Prison through which 109 Union officers escaped. It is a graphic recital from the pen of a man who escaped and one of the most interesting war papers yet contributed.

Being More Pleasant
To the taste, more acceptable to the stomach, and more truly beneficial in its action, the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is rapidly superseding all others. Try it. One bottle will prove its merits. For sale by Geo. C. Thaxter, agent.

NEVADA'S FIRST GOVERNOR.

A Sketch of a Once Noted Character.

The Shasta Courier has the following relative to a man who once figured as a prominent character in Nevada:

Governor Roop left here about thirty years ago, and founded the town of Susanville, the county seat of Lassen county, and named the town and Susan river which flows hard by, in honor of his eldest daughter Susan Roop, who afterwards married a Mr. Arnold. The town of Jamesville, some twelve miles from Susanville, was, we believe, named after Jane Roop, another daughter of Governor Isaac. Near Susanville, under the shadow of a lovely pine, whose uplifted spire points far heavenward, sleeps Peter Lassen, whose eternal monument is the white-robed Butte which bears the name of the first white man whose feet ever made imprint on its snowy crown. Near by Lassen's last resting place, if we are not misinformed, sleeps the remains of Governor Isaac Roop.

The Courier might have added to the above that the Convention, which met at Carson in 1859, and declared Nevada independent of Utah, elected Isaac Roop, Provisional Governor of the new Territory, a position which he held until the Territory was organized by Congress and James W. Nye appointed Governor by President Lincoln. Honey Lake Valley, the home of Governor Roop, was then supposed to be in Nevada, and with a strip of Territory bounded on the East by this county and on the West by California, was organized as a county by the Territorial Legislature, of which Roop was a member, and named Roop county. When the boundary line between Nevada and California was established it was found that Honey Lake Valley and Smoke Creek were not in Nevada, and the Eastern part of Roop county, which proved to be in this State, was annexed to Washoe for judicial purposes, and subsequently by act of the Legislature, made a part of that county, so that Roop county no longer exists, even in name, except upon old maps of Nevada.

Table of the Friendless Jackass.

A well-conditioned horse, grazing in a luxurious Pasture, looked over a fence and espied a lank and mangy Jackass trying to eke out a subsistence in a field where there was no water except the remains of a last Fall's Mud Puddle, and no grazing except the dried stalks of struggling weeds.

"What are you doing there?" asked the Horse.

"I am acting as the Boss and Confidential Advisor of a new party started here not long ago."

"Where's the rest of the Party?"

"Alas, I know not, when I came over here I was promised Office and Emoluments on a large scale, if I would only bray loudly against Political Corruption and the backing of an Immense Constituency."

"But where's the Immense Constituency?"

"It must have crawled through a Hole in the Fence, for now there is no living soul here but Me."

"Why don't you get out of that and come back to the Old Party?"

"I would willingly come back were I allowed any say. If I could be assured a Nomination, a Walk-Over and a Share in the Spoils I would come on the jump."

"I fear they can only take you on Probation."

"I cannot submit to such Indignity, nor will I. Here I am Boss, and there is no one in this field to dispute my Iron Will. I would rather rule in a Small Party than act as a Private in a big one. A nature like Mine was never born to Serve. When they want Me they know where to find Me."

"I fear, Mr. Mugwump, that when the party leaders make a Round-up they will never claim you, for the hair is so worn off your mangy hide that the old Brands are not discernable."

—The woman who was reported to have been outraged in Empire, and who was supposed to have wandered off into the hills and died is reported to have been seen in Reno since the occurrence.

HEALTHY DRINKING WATER.

A Universal Epidemic Cause, How it May be Avoided.

Typhoid fever runs everywhere! Wherever cities are dependent upon rivers or streams for their drinking water, the fever rages violently. Throughout the entire South-west and North-west the wells are low; the water is of very poor quality; and here also the fever rages.

The authorities of Albany, New York, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Philadelphia and other large cities are warning the people not to drink the water without first boiling it to kill the malarial and typhoid germs. Surely a winter of malaria and typhoid will ill prepare our people to encounter a summer of cholera.

Cholera and typhoid and malarial fevers can all be prevented by simple rules of life, and these rules should be studied by every one. These diseases are symptoms of a low state of the system, produced by the vitiated blood.

This blood is made impure because of the impurities in the drinking water, these impurities being deadly poisons which paralyze the nerve action of the kidneys and liver. When these blood purifying organs are paralyzed, then the natural waste of the body—the uric acid—accumulates in the blood, and fever cannot be prevented until this excess of uric acid has been removed.

The greatest necessity of everyday life is pure water. Two-thirds of one's body is made up of water. If the water we drink is impure, then how can we hope to escape diseased conditions?

It is impossible. The stomach, liver and kidneys cannot purify polluted water.

Some cautious people resort to the filter for purifying this water, but even the filter does not remove the poison, for water of the most deadly character may pass through this filter and become clear, yet the poison is there.

They who use filters know that they must become renewed at regular periods, for even though they do take out all the impurity, they become foul.

Now in like manner the human kidneys act as a filter for the blood and if they are filled up with impurities and become foul like a filter, all the blood in the system coursing through them becomes foul for it is now a conceded fact that the kidneys are the chief means whereby the blood is purified. These organs are filled with thousands of hairlike tubes, which drain the impurities from the blood, as the sewer pipe drain impurities from our houses.

If a sewer pipe breaks under the house, the sewage escapes into the earth and fills the house with poisonous gas; so if any of the thousands of hairlike tubes of the kidneys break down, the entire body is affected by this awful poison.

It is a scientific fact that the kidneys have few nerves of sensation; and, consequently, disease may exist in these organs for a long time and not be suspected by the individual. It is impossible to filter or take the death out of the blood when the least derangement exists in these organs, and if the blood is not filtered then the uric acid or kidney poison, removable only by Warner's safe cure, accumulates in the system and attacks any organ, producing nine out of ten ailments, just as sewer gas and bad drainage produce so many fatal disorders.

Kidney disease may be known to exist if there is any marked departure from ordinary health without apparent known cause, and it should be understood by all that the greatest peril exists and is intensified if there is the least neglect to treat it promptly with that great specific, Warner's safe cure, a remedy that has received the highest recognition by scientific men, who have thoroughly investigated the character of kidney derangements.

The liver, when deranged, immediately announces the fact by clogged skin, constipated bowels, coated tongue and headaches; but the kidney when diseased struggles on for a long time, and the fact of its disease can only be discovered by the aid of the microscope or by the physician who is skillful enough to trace the most indirect effects in the system to the derangement of these organs as the prime cause.

Served Them Right.

A man came into Fresno City, Cal., the other day, and said that he was canvassing for the Pacific Coast Commercial Record, and wanted advertisements and subscriptions. In a short time he picked up about $300 and lit out.

There is no such paper as the one he claimed to be agent for, and the flats lost their money. It served them right. They were probably that sort of idiots who are always paying money out to almost any sort of a sheet except those published in their own town.
